Fishing club news

August had us all out and about with such a great weekend to be on the water. We had a whopping number of fish species caught and sent in for this month's fish meet. Well done everyone. Some of our members were lucky enough to spot whales just on the outskirts of the River Heads headland.

Please remember for your fish to be calculated in the points system you need to have the secret word in your photo with your fish, this way we know it was caught during that weekend.

While out on the weekend of the fishing meet trip there were two members who pulled in some new records for our club. Richard Morton with a 64cm coral trout and 82cm mac tuna both club records. William Sayer's 80cm blue salmon for a junior club record. Thank you to Nick, Simon and Ngarra for helping with the barbecue and raffles at the meet.

All members are welcome to compete in this year's interclub held from October 4-7.

Brag mats will be supplied prior to the competition. Ben will distribute with the code Friday 4 at 4pm.

Weigh in held at the Boat Club upstairs in the Fraser room, Monday, October 7 from 11am.

The bar will be open from 1pm and presentations will start when the results are completed.

If members would like to meet at the shed 10.30am Monday, we can head in together as a team.

Let's win this shield back and bring it home!

Welcome to our new member Mick Mason and well done everyone on a very successful chook raffle at the bistro, 300 tickets sold out.

A big shout out to our Bunnings volunteers – Peter, Geoff, Mark, Greg, Jukka and Julie. If anyone is able to assist for our next one please contact Ben or Celena.

Next committee meet - October 1.

Date change - October fish meet now October 11-13.

Seared tuna salad with radish, finger lime and citrus vinaigrette

Ingredients

700g sashimi grade tuna loin
2tsp Dijon mustard
2tblsp extra virgin olive oil
2 finger limes, pearls removed
1 baby fennel (180g) shaved, fronds reserved
1 small Lebanese cucumber (150g) sliced
3 mixed baby heirloom radishes, shaved
1 jalapeno thinly sliced
Crushed pink peppercorns/ micro mitsuba to serve

Spice Mix

2tsp ground paprika
1tsp ground sumac
½tsp ground coriander

Citrus vinaigrette

21/2 tblsp each orange juice and olive oil
3tsp soy sauce
11/2tsp white wine vinegar

Method

1. Lay one sheet of plastic wrap on work bench big enough to fit tuna with a 10cm overhang. Wipe with a damp cloth, lay another sheet over top and push down so they stick together. Repeat to make three layers. Place tuna at short end of plastic wrap and roll tightly to make a log. Twist ends tightly and tie a knot to secure. Refrigerate overnight to set.
2. Unroll tuna and discard plastic. Combine spices and ½ tsp sea salt flakes on a large plate. Brush tuna with mustard and roll in spices to coat evenly. Heat oil in a large pan over high heat and sear tuna, turning frequently, until browned all over but still rare in middle (3-5 minutes). Transfer to a board and rest until cool (10 minutes).
3. Repeat step 1 so you have three layers of plastic wrap. Roll tuna, secure tightly and refrigerate for another 4-5 hours to set.
4. For vinaigrette, place ingredients in a bowl, season and whisk to combine.
5. To serve, remove tuna from fridge. Discard plastic wrap and thinly slice. Arrange tuna on a platter. Top with finger lime, fennel, cucumber, radish, jalapeño, pink peppercorn, and micro mitsuba. Drizzle seared tuna salad with dressing.

State Government Election 2024 - Hervey Bay candidates

Adrian Tantari - Labor Party

Adrian Tantari has a long association with the Hervey Bay Region, and is just as passionate about our community now, as when he first arrived with his family 25 years ago.

Having lived and worked locally, with his daughter having been born here, and his children schooled here, Adrian knows how special this region is.

The start of Adrian's first term as an MP in November 2020, was at an extraordinary time. At that time the imperative was to keep Queenslanders safe. The government Adrian was part of did that. Even during the pandemic, Adrian forged ahead with his plan of delivering the things that would build a better Hervey Bay region, and he has continued to work tirelessly for the Hervey Bay region ever since.

Adrian has engaged and listened to his community about their priorities and goals, with urgently needed school, hospital and community infrastructure, prioritised over the last four years.

In such a short time, the pipeline of projects and services locally is impressive. New school halls have been built, the mental health unit has been completed and opened and many major new infrastructure projects are currently underway.

The Miles Labor government is committed to completing our new Police Station, Fire and Rescue Station and major expansions to the Hervey Bay Hospital, as well as, upgrades to our state-controlled roads, bringing with them many thousands of jobs to keep our workforce employed.

While these great new facilities are being built, Adrian has also focused on the day to day. That's why he fought hard to achieve cost-of-living relief for our community, including $1000 off power bills, 20% off rego, $200 fair play vouchers, free TAFE and free kindy. Making life a little easier for us all.

Adrian's record shows that he has been successful in achieving great outcomes for your region in only his first four years as local member. More can always be done, and he is driven every day to make sure our region gets its fair share from Brisbane.

Adrian will always do what matters, as he sets about building a better Hervey Bay Region for us all, not just the few, and seeks your support to continue with this critical work for our future.

David Lee - Liberal National Party

I have been a visible, vocal and active member of the Hervey Bay community and am proud to call Hervey Bay home.

I know the value of hard work, community spirit and civic duty. I have been actively involved in the Fraser Coast Hospice Association, Meals on Wheels, Bayside Christian College, Rotary Club of Hervey Bay City, Leukaemia Foundation and I am currently Chair of the Salvation Army Red Shield Appeal Committee. I am an avid volunteer and advocate for the people of Hervey Bay.

I have enjoyed a diverse career as a solicitor, registered nurse, soldier and Chief Executive Officer. My experience as an Australian Army Medic and Theatre Technician, as well as the Chief Executive Officer of various health and aged care services, has given me a solid understanding of the health care sector. I am particularly passionate about protecting the safety and security of our people.

I have put my hand up to be your representative in State Parliament. I have spent the past four years representing Division 9 ratepayers on Fraser Coast Regional Council. I want to take that advocacy a step further, because all Hervey Bay locals deserve a State representative who is visible, vocal and active.

For most of his term, the current Labor Member for Hervey Bay has been silent on the issues that matter most in Hervey Bay. On issues like youth crime, health, housing affordability and cost-of living.

In the lead up to the October 2024 State Election and beyond, I will be listening to locals in every corner of the Hervey Bay electorate. I look forward to working with the Crisafulli LNP team to deliver the right priorities for Hervey Bay's future.

State Government Election 2024 - Hervey Bay candidates

Quinn Hendry - One Nation Queensland

I am 53 years old and born in Brisbane. I am a self-employed musician that entered the music industry at the age of 16 travelling the country with many well-known Australian artists and bands. My partner and I also ran a successful café/restaurant in Hervey Bay that relied heavily on the tourism industry.

As a resident here for over 25 years I have seen the incredible growth of the town even witnessing the first set of traffic lights being installed. The rapid growth has brought about an increase in homelessness due to the lack of affordable housing which is very concerning. One Nations Housing Policy includes reviewing government fees and charges which will lower housing costs and we will seek to increase the supply of low cost housing.

Youth crime is another huge problem. We have a fantastic youth intervention and redirection program called Hard Yakka aimed at troubled youth that operates right here on the Fraser Coast. The current labor government does not help fund the program. One Nations tackling crime policy acknowledges such programs but will also advocate for tougher sentencing for repeat offenders. A blanket approach of "Adult crime adult time" will do nothing to help young offenders that just need some tough love and discipline.

One Nation is the change we need to get us back in line with the values that I was brought up with and to stop the woke agenda the major parties are hell bent on delivering including net zero which is driving up the cost of living for every Australian.

I will fight for the residents of Hervey Bay. If you want change vote for One Nation!

Jeff Knipe - Legalise Cannabis Queensland Party

Jeff is a typical LCQLD candidate, he has his own Medicinal Cannabis story to tell and has been a friend to the Party for many years.

Work took Jeff to Victoria in 2011 and a couple of run-ins with cancer acquainted him with the benefits of medicinal cannabis from both a physical and mental health perspective. He joined LCVIC in 2022 and worked with Rachel Payne in her successful election that year before retiring and heading to Hervey Bay where he has family and innumerable holiday memories.

"I arrived in February and started my Market campaign to meet and greet the locals and provide the truth and answer questions about Legalised Medical Cannabis, and remove the unwarranted stigma associated with this much-maligned herb".

Jeff's stall visits the Pier Markets Urangan on Wednesdays and Saturdays, and also the alternating Koala Markets and Nikenbah Markets of a Sunday getting to know the locals, selling cannabis logo'd merchandise, collecting petition signatures and providing knowledge and information on how to obtain life changing Medicine.

"Our voice is needed in Queensland Parliament to start the conversation about the benefits of growing cannabis and industrial farmed hemp for a financial windfall, job creation and export opportunities while dispelling the lies, propaganda and stigma of the past."

A better quality of life for all Queenslanders. Respect. Jeff Knipe – 0421 822 144. jeffknipe.420@gmail.com

James Milliner - Family First Party

Sadly the major parties have abandoned your values and Family First seeks to provide you the chance to vote for what matters with a clear conscience. Family First will not compromise.

James believes strong families, freedom for faith, and protecting the most vulnerable are critical for the future of our community and our state.

Hervey Bay unleashes the fun with A Dog's Day Out

A Dog's Day Out in Hervey Bay next month promises to be a fur-tastic day for local dogs and their owners, with a rescue dog catwalk, agility demonstrations, and a vet advice session among the highlights.

Fraser Coast Mayor George Seymour said the popular event was returning to Dayman Park, Urangan on Sunday, October 13 from 8am to 12 noon, where Council will be looking for Hervey Bay's best-dressed dog and celebrating responsible dog ownership.

"A Dog's Day Out in Hervey Bay coincides with the annual dog registration renewal period with renewal notices being issued from late September and payments due by October 31," he said.

"At this year's event, we are also offering dog owners the chance to win a $200 Fraser Coast Buy Local Gift Card if they renew their dog registrations at the event.

"This is a great incentive to renew registrations while socialising your dog and enjoying a fun day out with the whole family.

"Free microchipping will be available and our Customer Service team will be on hand to register pets free for the first time.

"In the Fraser Coast, it is compulsory for dogs to be registered with Council from 12 weeks of age and within 14 days of owners moving to the region.

"Ensuring your dog is registered and microchipped helps reduce the number of animals that end up at the animal facility and makes it easier for Council to reunite lost pets with their owners."

Cr Seymour said if you've recently had your dog desexed and hold a Concession Card, you could be eligible for a $100 reimbursement, with desexing reimbursement forms available at the event.

"The fun day will also feature market stalls showcasing pet products, demonstrations, pet advice, a rescue dog catwalk, and dog training tips and tricks," he said.

"There will also be prizes for the best-dressed dog, best dog trick, and an owner look-alike competition."

Local businesses offering pet products or experiences that are interested in participating in the event are encouraged to contact Council on 1300 79 49 29 or email enquiry@frasercoast.qld.gov.au before September 27.

Clear out and cash in on the Garage Sale Trail

Fraser Coast residents are encouraged to clear out and cash in on the Garage Sale Trail this November – the nation's biggest second-hand treasure hunt.

Mayor George Seymour said Fraser Coast Regional Council was proud to be one of over 80 councils across Australia supporting the campaign this year, which aims to encourage people to learn about the circular economy and the benefits of reuse.

"The trail will be coming to the Fraser Coast over two big weekends on the 9-10 and 16-17 November, with the event offering savings for savvy shoppers on everything from the essentials you need to the pre-loved gems you want," he said.

"Local residents, schools, and community groups are invited to host their own garage sale or join a group sale, and you can take part over one day or do more across both weekends.

"For more information and to register your sale for free, go to www.garagesaletrail.com.au

"Council will be partnering with Reuse & Recycle Group Inc to host group sales at our tip shops in Hervey Bay on November 9 and 16 and in Maryborough on November 10 and 17.

"Residents who would like to take part in the Garage

Unhealthy fig trees to be removed for public safety

Two fig trees on the Hervey Bay Esplanade near the WetSide Water Park will be removed, and maintenance will be carried out on seven others to ensure community safety.

Fraser Coast Regional Council Open Space and Environment Executive Manager Max Corte said the Weeping Figs had been part of the Pialba foreshore since the 1930s, but unfortunately, their health had significantly worsened over time.

"Council arborists have been aware of the trees' declining conditions through routine maintenance inspections and have done extensive work to extend their lifespan to this point," he said.

"Council also sought advice from two independent arborists who confirmed the findings and recommended action.

"Two of the nine trees must be removed entirely, while the others will undergo ongoing inspections

Sale Trail but don't have the space themselves or don't want to do a sale at their home can register their interest to join the tip shop group sales."

To register go to <https://www.garagesaletrail.com.au/sale/nikenbah-reuse-and-recycle-tip-shop> or <https://www.garagesaletrail.com.au/sale/maryborou-gh-reuse-and-recycle-tip-shop>

Cr Seymour said selling or shopping at garage sales is a simple way to reduce our carbon footprint and an example of the circular economy in action.

"The Garage Sale Trail helps neighbours connect, make some money and keep their good stuff out of landfill," he said.

"Those holding a sale on the trail make an average of $457, proving that pre-loved is both environmentally friendly and pocket-friendly."

Garage Sale Trail is not-for-profit social enterprise that seeks to educate Australians on the importance of reuse and the need to take individual responsibility for the impact of our consumption habits. It started as a grassroots idea in Bondi Beach in 2010 and has grown to become a nationwide initiative in 2024.

and varying levels of pruning to reduce weight.

"In addition, Council will conduct remedial work to improve soil health and support the trees' root systems.

"We understand these trees have historical significance and are much loved by the community, but public safety must come first. This decision wasn't made lightly, and we are taking this action only because it is absolutely necessary.

"Replacement planting is already underway, and cuttings will be taken from the trees to help preserve them through replanting."

Mr Corte said the removal and maintenance work would occur over two days in mid-October, during which there will be some road closures and pedestrian restrictions.

Vibrant new exhibitions to open at Hervey Bay gallery

A colourful reimagining of south-east Queensland suburban life, an exploration of sustainable timber use and a showcase of local artistic talent are all part of the new exhibitions opening at the Hervey Bay Regional Gallery this weekend.

Fraser Coast Regional Council Arts spokesperson Michelle Govers said Brisbane artist Phoebe Paradise is known for her vibrant illustrations, murals and public art installations, with her new exhibition examining the charm of suburban life.

“Burbs to the Bay reimagines south-east Queensland suburbia with vibrant streetscapes and surreal architecture, bringing the essence of subtropical Queensland to life in a colourful, dreamlike world,” Cr Govers said.

Phoebe recently collaborated with local artists Matthew Graveson and Halle Bryant on a stunning 10-metre mural in the Hervey Bay Regional Gallery foyer as part of a mentorship program supported by the Regional Arts Development Fund.

Alongside Burbs to the Bay is Forest to Fibre – an exhibition highlighting cutting-edge research in sustainable timber processing and design, local stores, artworks and histories.

Additionally, the inaugural Regional Spotlight exhibition will showcase artists from across the Wide Bay Burnett region.

Featured artists: Vanessa Allega, Avi Amesbury, Adam Anderson, Susan Zela Bissett, Kerri Dixon, Seinileva Huakau, Julie McGillivray, Monique Mennie, Donna Norwood and Jacinta Padgett.

All three exhibitions run from September 21 to November 17. Visit <https://hbrg.com.au/> Located at 166 Old Maryborough Road Pialba, and open Tuesday to Friday 10am-4pm, and weekends 10am-2pm.
